- IV. Action items
 - a. Election of Site Council Facilitator
 - b. Election of Secretary

- c. Participation Fees for Extracurricular activities up to $1,000.00 for FY 25-26

These monies would be for those students that have a financial hardship and did not qualify for a full EEF scholarship to pay for their FY 25-26 participation fees for Fine Arts/Interscholastic activities. To qualify the student would first need to have their parent/guardian complete the EEF scholarship application. If unable to qualify for the EEF scholarship than their parent/guardian would complete the TUSD Waiver Form in order to receive this scholarship opportunity.

- d. Sponsor Stipend of $3000.00 for Robotics Club.

Consider the approval of $3,000.00 from undesignated tax credit funds for the Robotics Club sponsor stipend to be split evenly between two sponsors (Ben Davis and Andrew Christian)

- e. Supplies for PBIS Store up to $500.00 for FY 25-26

These monies would be used to purchase incentive items such as school supplies (e.g. mechanical pencils, lanyards, etc.) and items to help with focus (e.g. stress balls, fidgets, etc.) for students to be awarded for positive behavior of Sahuaro Cougars "Being the Three" Be Respectful, Be Reliable, Be Responsible as part of the Character Education component. To qualify the student would need to earn points from teachers and staff at Sahuaro that are awarded for positive behavior choices.

f. AP Test Fees for up to $3,500.00 for FY 25-26

These monies would be for those students that do not qualify for free AP tests to help them pay for AP Tests.
